Marqués de Cáceres, Rioja (Spain) Reserva 2002 ($24, Vineyard Brands): An outstanding Rioja Reserva, medium-bodied, with a floral (think violets) note in the bouquet, and long, layered flavors that echo cherries, vanilla, leather, spice, and more. In my experience, wines from Marqués de Cáceres are almost always reliable but not always thrilling. This one, however, is just that. 92 Paul Lukacs Sep 22, 2009
