

2014 Estate Pinot Noir
Willamette Valley

“Directly adjoining the famed Shea Vineyard, these grapes bring comparable quality. This is young, grapy and aromatic, with primary aromas focused on black-cherry fruit. There are streaks of licorice and cola, leading into a long, lemony, tobacco-laced finish.”

-P.G..

92
POINTS

WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

December, 2016